George Gould Attaches Property of an Arkansas Corporation for $600,000.

George J. Gould obtained an attachment yesterday for $200,000 against the Northwestern Construction Company, an Arkansas corporation, on the ground that it is a foreign corporation. Deputy sheriffs were sent attaching property of the company in this city. At the office of Julian Taggart, lawyer attorney for Mr. Gould, it was said that the claim was on behalf of the Kansas and Beartree Railroad Company, endorsed by the Northwestern Construction Company, which notes had been purchased by Mr. Gould.

Deputy Sheriff Fox received an attachment for $23,577 against the Union Manufacturing Company, a New York corporation, the President of the company. It was incorporated under New Jersey laws, it has a capital stock of $200,000 and factory at 820 to 822 Hoboken Street.

The Merchants' Bank of Canada entered judgment for $12,712 against John F. Wisch, formerly of the firm of Field, Lindsey, Weichers & Co.

ADVERTISED FOR A WIFE.

We Find 362 Answers—The Last Number Down to Ten, with Few Prospects.

TORONTO, April 5.—Alexander Lindsay, a traveller for a Connecticut corporation, who is a widower and lives at Detroit, advertised recently in the Toronto newspapers for a wife. He said to-day he received 362 replies. Three hundred of them were out of the question. He passed through Toronto on a tour through Canada, calling personally on these fifteen. He called on some here, and said none would do. He is 50 years old. The others were 20 and ugly.
